AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—The following real estate was sold this morning by public auction, in front of the Mayor's office, by John H. Parrott, auctioneer:

A brick building and lot of ground on the east side of Royal street, between King and Cameron, eighteen feet eight inches front, and seventy-seven feet six inches deep, for $2,725, to Mr. Charles Brill, who at present occupies the property.

A strip of ground adjoining the above property on the north, seventeen inches and a half front, and seventy-seven feet six inches deep, to Wm. Gregory, for $185.

Five sixteenths of an undivided lot of ground on the east side of St. Asaph street, between Prince and Duke, thirty-nine feet front, and one hundred and twenty feet deep, to William Cogan, for $50.

A lot, adjoining the above on the north, eleven feet front, and seventy-three feet five inches deep, to Maj. John W. Green, for $117.

All the above property belonged to the estate of the late John McKnight.

Nine acres of land, on which there are a two-story frame dwelling house, barn, and stable, situated on the north side of the Poor's House Lane—under a deed of trust—to P. Camp, for $2,200.

ONE OF THE TRICKS of some of the sharp Northern publishers of magazines and periodicals, is to send editors of newspapers a copy or one number, asking for a "favorable" notice, and promising to furnish their publications thereafter regularly. They often obtain the notice—worth an advertisement to them—and that is the last that is heard of them. This is doing business on an economical scale, (as they obtain all the benefit) on their part. Such meanness deserves to be rebuked. For the most part these periodicals are the veriest trash—not worth the paper on which they are printed. We constantly receive them. Our editorial brethren should give them a wide berth—as they should, also, most of the "advertising agencies," by which they have been swindled.

THE MARKET, this morning, was well attended. We have no change whatever to notice in the prices of vegetables. They will, however, be more plentiful and cheaper than they now are, in a few days. The Butchers had good supplies of excellent meats at former rates. But-ter is from 60 to 70 cts. for fresh print. Eggs 25 cts. a dozen. Very little poultry brought to market. The flower stands attracted the ladies. Mr. Slater had a great variety of beautiful flowers. Fish were plentiful. Shad from 40 to 60 cents per pair. Rock and perch at different prices, according to size of bunch and fish. Some fine large rock are now offered.

O., A. & M. R. R.—It is stated that the Board of Directors of the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad, at their last meeting, passed an order authorizing contracts to be let at once for the construction of the road to Harrisonburg, and that the work is already in progress. The track is already laid between Strasburg and Mt. Jackson, and will be completed to Kratzer's, four miles this side of Harrisonburg, by next September, and the cars, it is expected, will be running to Harrisonburg during the month of October following.

RADICAL MEETINGS.—The Radical County Committee will meet in this city on Monday next, to determine upon the time and manner of holding the County Convention, to appoint delegates to the State Convention to be held in Richmond on Thursday, the 7th of May, to nominate State officers. Meetings of the party in the four different wards of the city, and in the county district will be held next week to select delegates to the County Convention.

NOT RECEIVED.—The letter mailed at Rectortown (as we are informed) containing money, and the name of a new subscriber, about 12 or 13 days ago, has not been received at this office. The printed sheets mailed at Charlestown, Jefferson county, for this office, more than a week ago, have not been received.

BOSTON ICE.—The schr. E. H. Ferber, arrived at the port, this morning, with a load of three hundred tons of Boston ice, for M. Elbridge & Co. The ice comes in large and beautiful blocks, and its appearance is very suggestive of the reader can end the sentence.

L. H. WINGFIELD, ESQ., Agent of the Piedmont Life Insurance, is the authorized Agent for the Alexandria Gazette, for Amherst, and the neighboring counties. He is at Amherst C. H., and will receive subscriptions, advertisements, &c.

CORPORATION OFFICERS.—It is due to the retiring Corporation officers, to say, that as far as we know or are informed, they have discharged their duties faithfully, and honestly, and for the good and best interest of the community.

THE TREES.—The fine weather is showing its influence on the trees—the buds of which are swelling, and the leaves beginning to put forth. Gardeners are now busy.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Miss Dorcas Harding, a most estimable lady of Leesburg, dropped dead in that place yesterday.

TEMPERANCE REUNION.—A very agreeable incident took place at the meeting of Harmony Division No. 24, Sons of Temperance, last night. While the Division was proceeding under the head of "the good of the Order," the Sentinel announced the approach of Mount Vernon Division in a body on a fraternal visit. The doors being thrown open the members, ladies and gentlemen, of Mount Vernon Division entered the Hall, preceded by W. P. Henry Fultz and other officers, to the number of seventy odd. A brief address of welcome was made by Worthy Patriarch G. C. Wilde, of Harmony Division, which was responded to by W. P. P. I. C. O'Neil and several others. Mount Vernon Division said it came to help its sister Division, and proffered it in a manner not to be misunderstood. The lady members sung several beautiful songs, to the accompaniment of instrumental music. The visit was attended with the happiest results, and will long be remembered with pleasure by all who were present.

DISTURBANCE.—Some disturbance was created on the lower end of Prince street, between ten and eleven o'clock last night, by a woman who threatened to drown herself. She was secured however and taken to her home.

PRIVATE SALE.—Oak Grove, near the Theological Seminary, containing seventeen acres of land, and belonging to J. Wells Lockwood, was sold a few days ago at private sale to Major John W. Green.

POTOMAC FISH.—We are indebted to some of our kind and good old friends connected with the Potomac fisheries, for presents of the finest shad we almost ever saw—together with rock and perch.

PEACH CROP.—We learn that the damage done to the peach trees, in this neighborhood, by the late cold weather, is not as great as was at first supposed—and many orchards are not hurt at all.

A LETTER from Amherst county, Va., informs us of the gratifying fact, that several of the citizens of that county are going to change their place of trade and transfer it to Alexandria. Speed the work!

POLICE REPORT—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Wesley Morgan, colored, on complaint of Georgeanna Nelson, also colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

E. Brown, for beating Charles Fautleroy, colored, was held under bonds for his appearance at the next term of the County Court.

MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE.—Wesley Morgan, colored, for threatening Harrison Blackburn, also colored, was discharged and the costs of the case assessed against the complainant.

Henry Red, colored, for stealing a horse from Isaac Stoddard, was committed to jail for examination by the County Court.

Candy Travis, colored, for stealing a horse from Isaac Stoddard, in Alexandria county, was discharged, but was immediately re-arrested for the same crime, committed in Fairfax county.

Van Vandergrift, colored, committed to the county jail, charged with complicity in the burning of John Bell's out-houses, in Alexandria county, last week, was released. Charles Williams and Lewis Murphy, two colored men arrested with Vandergrift, and on the same charge, are still confined.

BLIND AND SASH FACTORY.—An advertisement of Messrs. Rishell & Hooge, in to-day's paper informs the public that having taken possession of the sash factory at the corner of Fairfax and Queen streets, they are prepared to execute with dispatch, and at cheap rates all orders with which they may be favored.

AMATEUR CONCERT.—A concert by amateur musicians of this city, assisted by an accomplished young lady of Washington, will be given as can be seen by reference to the advertising columns of to-day's Gazette, at the Assembly Rooms, on Wednesday evening next.

FASHIONABLE CLOTHING.—Attention is directed to the advertisements of S. Dealham, in the city items of to-day's Gazette. Mr. Dealham, by a judicious system of advertising, and by selling good articles at cheap rates has succeeded in building up a large trade.

OYSTERS.—Mr. Owing, foot of Prince street, continues to receive and have for sale, fine oysters, brought up by the steamboats.

Impeachment.
WASHINGTON, April 18.—The High Court of Impeachment met to-day at 11 o'clock, when the discussion regarding the admission of the Cabinet proceedings, was resumed, Mr. Wilson, one of the managers, reading his speech, the main feature of which was that the advice of Cabinet officers has no force except in matters pertaining to their respective departments, and that the President's checks on the Legislative action were exhausted by his veto. Judge Curtis followed and controverted Mr. Wilson's positions.
